BASE RUNNING SYMBOLS (F) AND (S)

Some players' cards may bear (F) or (S) symbols before their fielding positions. When such players are base runners, be sure to follow any (F) or (S) base running modifications that appear on the playing board UNLESS the base runner has been "coached" to do otherwise, as explained elsewhere on these playing boards.

PITCHING SYMBOLS (W) (X) (Y) (Z)

Certain pitcher's cards may have one or two of these symbols after their fielding ratings. When such pitchers are on the mound ignore the regular play entirely and score only as follows when these symbols appear after the board number: W — base on balls; X — strikeout; PO-C; Y — strikeout, PO-C; Z — Ball — roll dice for same batter again.

Pitcher's cards with symbol () beside pitching grade letter may be used as RELIEF PITCHERS ONLY. If this symbol () appears after their names on the line-up sheet but not on their cards, they should be used very seldom as starters.

Some pitcher's cards show both a starting and relief rating.
